Correction to the last 'Zine: M. Jardin should have (2) mention points, M. Dolokhov should be SL 16 and should have an additional (1) mention point, and, no military abilities should exceed 10.

The following positions are also available to be purchased by qualified player characters (and, if done, their positions may open up for other player characters): Lt. Col./CPC, Col./KM & Lt. Col./GDMD. If players wish, they may indicate that they purchased the position at the beginning of the season (it will not affect the outcome of any battles), but they may wish to wait to see if they are able to achieve the same ends by promotion.

Question for M. Terrault: Do you wish to join as a private or an officer - entrance into the reg't depends on the good will of M. Van Rijn (providing he survives) rather than a die roll.

Rules Additions, Deletions, Modifications & Clarifications:

1) Players may, if they wish, indicate that they are attempting some courageous, foolhardy act to try to gain more status (ie. standing in the saddle during horsemanship contest or bear hunting afoot while at hunting parties, etc). The King will arbitrarily decide chances for success and will roll accordingly, but he will also include a chance for injury or death. The King's decisions are FINAL!

Le Gossipe Parisienne

Although Paris was nearly deserted this summer, it was a very pleasant season; the atmosphere enlivened by the presence of the few notables who remained. However, I have witnessed, this fall, how quickly the air becomes poisonous by the presence of notorious cowards and gallow's bait. I hope that the tang of battle smoke can drive the odors from my nostrils, as I expect the guardians of our capitol to wash this sewage from her streets.

- Major Francois Jardin

Colonel Jean-Paul Bic, of the Royal Marines, today purchased a beautiful black gelding which he has named "Le Etoile Noire" and has equiped with the finest harness available.

To all young men of Paris!
Join a fighting regiment!
Join the Royal Marines!
No Poltroons need apply
See the Regimental Adjutant.

The streets of Paris could run red with blood this season. M. Jardin and a band of six other members of the Crown Prince Ouirassiers were seen slashing around in the Bois de Boulogne in the first week of the season, apparently searching for M. Dubois; but M. Dubois did not arrive at the Bois until the exact stroke of the hour which he and M. Van Rijn were to meet in a matter of honor. When he arrived, he was met by a barrage of insults (far too foul to ignore) from M. Jardin. Who will fight whom - we await an answer.

The situation is also highly strained between Messrs de Sod and Dolokhov, who have met on the doorstep of the lovely Giselle as well as M. Van Rijn and M. de Lampalle (never the best of friends) who have met on the doorstep of the newly arrived Roxanne, and, to the amazement of all, M. Van Rijn (having an extraordinary season of challenges) and M. de Sod, who have subsequently met on the doorstep of Roxanne, when M. Van Rijn had arrived to pick her up for his party.

Fall 1613 influence uses and duel results must be received, by March 9, 1983, at the KING'S RESIDENCE, 206 School Street, Fairfield, Ct., 06430

NOTES FROM THE JOURNAL OF THE ROYAL ZOOLOGICAL SOCIETY - Edited by LORD HARRISON BURKE, Fall, 1826.

- IN EUROPE

Refusing a free ticket to BRASS, MADemoiselle ROXY LARUE entertains another offer from the Paris Police Officials. This earns her a free ticket to Port Elizabeth. It is rumored that the Mademoiselle does not understand the big to-do over Dr. Cemia's secret recipe. She was heard to say "what I have to sell is far sweeter than sugar, so I don't know what the big deal is, anyway."

- IN AFRICA:

Professor O'FORAN arrives in KHARTOUM this turn and is organizing a camel-borne expedition. He escaped Dublin just in the nick of time; an angry mob chased the Professor onto the pier just as his steamship was leaving. They claimed that his contest was a fraud. It seems that the Professor refused to give a prize, claiming that someone had tampered with his jar and replaced his African sand with Irish sand. He said that he was going to the African desert to confirm this and would return with the evidence in a few years. After hearing this, the mob went wild, and the professor made his timely departure on a steam ship to Khartoum.

Enraged by the comment of the press, Doctor Hypo Guy Cenia packed a 5 year supply of Bon-Bons and headed for Khartoum. The good Doctor plans a camel-borne expedition in the desert. He claims that the dry desert air is just right to grow the secret ingredient he uses for a new chocolate, so sweet that pure sugar is bitter in comparison. It is rumored that the good doctor did notice Professor O'Foran in the streets of Khartoum, but thumbed his nose at him and walked off, continuing to stuff bon-bons in his mouth.

VIC "TANBODY" McBUNS attempts to head for the East coast of Africa, after escaping the warriors of Bishari. McBuns may get a chance to preach to the Bishari tribe, as he and several of the members of the tribe are entombed, together in the mountain side, victims of an avalanche.

ORTE'GO DE OAGO discovers, while studying the Bassanga tribe, that he now can buy 5 rations with each gift. He hires a guide for 3 gifts, only to find out that one would have hired on for only 2 gifts this turn. He become a little ill because of this, but does not become incapacitated. Canoes and Askaris still cost four gifts, but bearers will hire on for only 2 gifts. Now his hunters each provide the expedition with 2 rations apiece, enough to keep the expedition from buying rations this turn.

The Right Reverend TWOMBLY dismisses two bearers before he continues to move West across the continent. He leaves hex 522 moving into hex 521, which is another veldt hex, with a river source heading in direction 1 into 502. The reverend is confronted by 18 warriors of the Go-Na tribe. In an act of manly courage, he approaches them in a friendly, open manner. The chief, praising such courage, decides not to kill him just yet. Twombly must try to preach to this tribe next turn. He finds out that he can buy canoes, bearers and guides for 2 gifts each. The Go-Na tribe is a fierce hunting tribe, and Askaris want 4 gifts each to hire on. Rations trade here at the rate on one gift for four rations. Twombly's hunting provides the expedition with 3 rations.

SPECIAL ADVERTISEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL:

Explorer looking for a syndicate to sponsor him. Louisiana Smith, noted professor of archaeology and explorer is seeking some group of investors to sponsor his search for lost civilizations in Africa. Professor Smith claims that the African continent should have a least one lost civilization hiding in it! He is willing to explore Africa by himself, if necessary, and he is willing to lead a modest expedition for passage to Africa.

Players are reminded to submit their next move by MARCH 9, 1983, to THE ROYAL ZOOLOGICAL SOCIETY, PO BOX 2004, DARIEN, CT., 06820.
